Місце і час молитви

Усамітнення для молитви

Цю пораду Христос дав під час Нагірної проповіді. Отці духовного життя часто тлумачили ці слова, розуміючи їх як скерування уваги вглиб себе. Про внутрішню увагу йдеться в заклику святого Василя Великого «Уважай на себе», до неї нас постійно закликають літургійним «Будьмо уважні» (церковнослов'янською – Воньмім). Наш найперший відгук на такий заклик – це очевидно посилити увагу до того, що відбувається всередині нас.

Як часто маємо молитися?

Церква провадить людину на шляху її молитви та пропонує спертися на набутий молитовний досвід. Полягає він у тому, що треба відвести для розмови з Богом конкретно окреслений час, мінімально – двічі на день, уранці та ввечері. Відповідно підібрані тексти вечірніх і ранкових молитов містяться в «Молитовнику», де поміщено й інші молитви, які супроводжують життя віруючої людини упродовж цілого дня. Молитва є головним правилом життя. Молячись частіше, ми поступово зближуємо між собою молитву і свої щоденні справи, щоб у перспективі молитва стала для нас важливою щоденною справою, а всі інші справи сповнилися духом молитви. Тому молитва і праця є двома взаємопов'язаними аспектами християнського способу життя. Життя християнина, насичене спілкуванням з Богом, перетвориться у свято, стане часом власного осячення й переображення світу.

Молитва перед іконами

Ікони служать молитві, щоб до міри духовного зростання поступово перейти від віри в Таїну Бога до споглядання Його «обличчям до обличчя». VII Вселенський собор навчає, що Бога пізнаємо через Сина Божого – Слово та Образ Отця. Кожен зі шляхів богопізнання є однаково важливим і вартісним. У молитві перед іконами головним «органом» спілкування з Богом є не уста, які вимовляють слова, а очі, якими дивимося на зображення, щоб споглядати зображену Особу. Як і словесна молитва, молитва перед іконами є поступальним процесом, образом якого є драбина.

The Place and Time of Prayer

Entering into Solitude for Prayer

In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ taught us that during prayer we should “go into our room and shut the door.” The Fathers of the spiritual life frequently offered interpretations of these words. They understood them as an injunction to direct our attention deep within ourselves. This is the interior attention to which Saint Basil the Great refers in his appeal to “Attend to yourself!” The liturgical “Let us be attentive!” continually reminds us of this. The most important reaction to this call is to increase our attention to what is going on within ourselves.

How Often Should We Pray?

The Church guides us on our path of prayer and proposes that we rely on her accumulated experience of prayer. This experience indicates that we need to set aside designated times to speak with God. As a minimum this would be twice a day - in the morning and in the evening. Appropriate prayers for the morning and evening are found in every prayerbook along with other prayers that accompany the believer through the various situations he or she encounters during the day. Prayer is our main rule of life. As we pray more often, we progressively bring prayer closer to our daily affairs until prayer becomes one of our main daily activities and all other endeavours are filled with the spirit of prayer. This is why prayer and work are two mutually dependent aspects of the Christian way of life. If filled with communion with God, the Christian's life is transformed into a feast, and it becomes a time for our sanctification and the world's transfiguration.

Prayer before Icons

Icons serve prayer so that as the Christian grows spiritually, he or she might gradually pass from faith in the Mystery of God to the contemplation of him “face to face.” The Seventh Ecumenical Council teaches that we come to know God through God's Son — the Word and Image of God. Each of the ways of divine knowledge is equally valid and important. In prayer before icons the main organ of our communication with God is not our lips, which pronounce the words, but our eyes. With our eyes we look at the image in order to contemplate the imaged Person. Like vocal prayer, prayer before icons is a gradual process, in which we progress as if climbing the rungs of a ladder.

METANOIA - and believe in the Gospel

Metanoia is a 10 part series that is beautifully filmed on location in the Holy Land.

Metanoia will examine topics such as who is Jesus, what must we do to inherit eternal life, and many other significant matters of faith.

We do ask that anyone who attends wear a face mask.

We will be set up for social distancing.

Please park in the parking lot and use the doors located between the church and the banquet hall (north entrance).

At this time — snacks or beverages will NOT be available.

There is no cost - the program is free.

Glory to Jesus Christ! Слава Ісусу Христу!

I am excited to announce that, with the blessing of His Excellency Bishop Benedict Aleksyichuk efforts are underway to establish a Ukrainian Byzantine Catholic Parish in northwestern lower Michigan, specifically in the area of Traverse City, Charlevoix, and Petoskey. All Catholics (Ukrainian and non-Ukrainians) are welcome and encouraged to join us in this effort.

As a way to gauge interest, please email your name and contact information, along with what area you are from to:

upnorthbyz@gmail.com and frdanieltchai@gmail.com (Fr. Daniel Schaicoski)

This will help us determine the best potential location for Divine Liturgy and enable us to keep you informed as plans move forward. God willing, the goal is to begin celebrating Divine Liturgy monthly starting in April 2021 at a location in or around Traverse City, Charlevoix, or Petoskey, depending on interest.

Please encourage those you know living in those areas to contact us so we can have a better idea of where to hold Divine Liturgy and how many we can expect.

"Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ". Colossians 3:23-24

In case you are willing to help, know people who can help, don't hesitate to call Father Daniel at (586) 907 8552, or write to: frdanieltchai@aol.com

God Bless,

Father Daniel Schaicoski, OSBM
