Потреба молитви

Зріла молитва християнина має два виміри: літургійний і особистий. Ця молитва покликана звершувати невинне богочитання. Ісус Христос навчає “молитись завжди й не падати духом” (Лк.18,1; пор.11,5-8), а святий апостол Павло закликає безнастанно молитися (пор. 1 Сол. 5, 17). Життя християнина, починаючи від святого таїнства Хрищення, коли людина “занурена” в життя Пресвятої Тройці, миропомазана Святим Духом і з’єднана з Христом у святому Причасті, стає часом молитви хвали, благодарення і прослави Творця, перетворюється у молитовний стан, тобто постійну готовність серця. Цей стан людина має плекати безнастанно: “Невинно молитися той, хто поєднує молитву з працею і навпаки. Тільки так можемо сповнити заповідь щодо невинної молитви”. Святий Василій Великий у своїх правилах поєднав працю з семиразовою літургійною молитвою, щоб таким чином уся доба була посвячена Господеві.

Особиста, чи приватна, молитва завжди має церковний вимір. Святий Кипріяніс навчає: “Коли молимося, то молимося не тільки за себе самих, а й за весь народ, бо ми всі є одним народом [...]”. Сам Христос, учитель і наставник єдності, бажав, щоб кожен молився за всіх, подібно як Він, зібравши всіх у Самому Собі, привів їх до Отця”. Отже, той, хто молиться в ім’я Христа, завжди молиться в Церкві, Тілі Христовому, і для Церкви. Кожний християнин, коли славить Господа чи благодарить Його чи чогось просить для себе або для інших, стає голосом свого ближнього. Така молитва має за основу спільну участь християн у Христовому священстві для освячення світу.

“Треба молитися завжди й не падати духом.” (Лк. 18,1)

“Ви ж, любі, що будете вашою найсвятішою вірою і молитесь у Святім Дусі!” (Юд. 1, 20)

The Need for Prayer

The mature prayer of the Christian has two dimensions: liturgical and personal. This prayer is called to fulfil the task of unceasing worship. Jesus Christ teaches us “to pray always and not lose heart” (Lk 18:1; see Lk 11:5-8). The apostle Paul in turn calls us to “pray without ceasing” (1 Thes 5:17). The life of the Christian—beginning from the Holy Mystery of Baptism, when the person is immersed (the literal meaning of the word baptism) in the life of the Most Holy Trinity, chrismated by the Holy Spirit and joined to Christ in Holy Communion — this life becomes a time of prayer, filled with praise, thanksgiving, and glorification of the Creator. Our life is then transformed into a prayerful state, or stance, a constant readiness of the heart. Christians should ceaselessly cultivate this state: “They ‘pray without ceasing’ who join prayer to works that are of obligation, and good works to their prayer ... It is only in this way that we can understand the injunction ‘pray without ceasing’ as something that we can carry out.” Saint Basil the Great in his Rules coupled work to sevenfold liturgical prayer in the course of the day, in order thus to consecrate the entire day to the Lord.

Personal or private prayer always has an ecclesial dimension. Saint Cyprian teaches: “When we pray, we pray not only for ourselves but for the entire people, because we all are one people ... Christ himself, our teacher and master, desired that each would pray for all, as he, having gathered all within himself, brought them to the Father.” Therefore, those who pray in the name of Christ, always pray in the Church, the Body of Christ, and for the Church. Christians who praise the Lord or thank him or ask for something for themselves or for others, become the voice of their neighbour. The basis of this prayer is the common partaking of Christians in Christ’s priesthood, for the sanctification of the world.

“[You] need to pray always and not lose heart.” (Lk 18:1)

“You, beloved, build yourselves up on your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit.” (Jude 1:20)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Glory be to Jesus Christ!

In 2011, St. Josaphat, our parish, celebrated its 50th anniversary. Throughout the years, our parish has grown and now the complex consists of the church (the oldest building), the rectory and office, the banquet center and the garage where we store our inventory. Our predecessors, many of whom have passed away, dedicated their time, energy and resources to build St. Josaphat to what it is today.

Like everything else in life, the buildings need to be repaired and taken care of. This is why I am writing to you. You may have noticed that the roof is leaking. There are leaks in the hallways, the Banquet Centre, the garage, both sacristies and the banquet center office. There is also a leak in the entrance of the hallway between the church and Banquet Centre. The leaks are quite serious and if we do not fix them, the damage may lead to structural problems.

We have received 3 estimates for the repairs. The church council and I have entered into a contract with a company that will give us the best option along with a 20-year warranty.

The work will be done in several phases. The 1st phase is to repair the flat roof all the way from the classroom to the Banquet Centre. The estimate is $80,000. The expectation is to complete the repair before the winter of 2021/22.

At this time, we are turning to all of our parishioners for financial donations. Your donations will be tax deductible. Without your help, we will not be able to maintain our wonderful church and her building.

God bless you all with His graces, health, joy, peace.
