5th Sunday After Pentecost

Prayer Book Hear Me, O Lord pg. 382 Rom. 10: 1-10; Mt. 8: 28-34, 9:1

Вісім головних гріхів і протилежні до них чесноти

(Христос Наша Пасха -761-63)

Розпуста – ціломудреність

Статевий потяг є природним для людини. Суть гріха розпусти полягає в нестримному та невпорядкованому пошуку тілесної насолоди, коли людина керується самолюбством і бажанням догодити собі, часто — ціною своєї гідності та гідності іншої особи. розпуста призводить до інших гріхів: дошлюбних та позашлюбних статевих зносин, статевого рабства й зведення людини до товару. ця пристрасть є небезпечною не тільки для тіла, а й для душі, бо поневолює людину та руйнує здатність любити. тому духовні отці наголошують на потребі постійної боротьби з цією пристрастю.

Святий Кирило Єрусалимський стверджує, що рішуча відмова від розпусти є суттєвим елементом християнської віри у воскресіння тіла: «Хто вірить, що тіло призначене для воскресіння, той піклується цими своїми ризами й не забруднює їх нечистотою. Хто не вірить у його воскресіння, той полишає його на поталу нечистоті та зловживає ним як чимось чужим для себе».

Особа досягає чистоти статевого життя чеснотою ціломудреності. ця чеснота узгоджує статевий потяг із любов'ю до ближнього. Чистота допомагає людині керувати своїм статевим потягом та відновлює гармонію тіла, душі й духу.

The Eight Capital Sins & Their Opposite Virtues (cont.) (Christ Our Pascha -761-63)

Lust and Its Opposite Virtue —Wholeness of Being

The sexual impulse is natural for a human being. The essence of the passion of lust lies in the unrestrained and disordered quest for bodily gratification, when a person is driven by self-love and a desire to please oneself, often at the expense of one's own dignity and the dignity of another person. Lust leads to a variety of sins: pre-marital sexual relations (fornication) and extramarital sexual relations (adultery), sexual slavery, and the commodification of the person. This passion is dangerous not only for the body but also for the soul, because it enslaves a person and destroys the ability to love. The spiritual Fathers consequently stress the necessity of constantly struggling against this passion.

Saint Cyril of Jerusalem affirms that the decisive rejection of lust is an essential element of the Christian belief in the resurrection of the body: "He who believes that his body shall remain to rise again, is careful of his robe, and defiles it not with fornication; but he who disbelieves the resurrection, gives himself to fornication, and misuses his own body, as though it were not his own." A human being achieves chastity in the sexual life through the virtue of wholeness of being. This virtue orders the sexual impulse through love of neighbour and self. Chastity allows a person to control one's sexual impulse and restores the harmony of body, soul and spirit.
