Молитва Церкви Проскомидія

(Христос Наша Пасха – ст. 119-20 #345-348)

Основою Проскомидії є приготування хліба і вина, адже саме їх ужив Христос під час тайної Вечері. Хліб і вино є Божими дарами і плодами праці людських рук. У Старому Завіті хліб мав значення того, що найнеобхідніше для життя, а вино – свята, радості душі перед Господом. Хліб і вино становили основу того бенкету, на якому Божа Мудрість дає Себе в поживу вірним. У новому Завіті на тайній Вечері Христос подав хліб і вино як дар Себе за життя світу. Ми ж у відповідь приносимо хліб і вино на знак дару нашого життя Христові.

Проскомидія звершується на приготованих для Літургії хлібинах – просфорах (із грецької принесене). Із просфори священник вирізає агнца і кладе його на дискос. Вирізання агнца супроводжується словами з пророцтва Ісаї про заковлення ягняти. Христос є пасхальним агнцем, що бере на себе гріх світу. На агнці, вирізаному з просфори, витиснено слова «ІС ХС НІКА» (з грецької Ісус Христос перемагає), що є прообразом повноти «будучого віку», про яку писав святий Павло: «Якже все Йому буде підкорене, тоді й сам Син підкориться тому, що Йому підкорив усе, щоб Бог був усім в усьому.» Вливання до чаші вина і води символізує те, як із пробитого списом боку Христа «потекла кров і вода.» Св. Йоан Золотоустий повчає: «ця кров і вода є символами хрещення і тайнств (евхаристійних дарів). З цих двох народжена церква [...]. З боку Христового Бог створив церкву, як з боку адамового створив Єву.»

Священик кладе агнца у центрі диска на знак того, що воплощений, розп'ятий і воскреслий Христос – осердя всесвіту й історії. Праворуч агнца кладе частичку на честь Пресвятої Богородиці, ліворуч – дев'ять часточок на честь ангельських сил і святих. Нижче агнца покладає частички за живих, а ще нижче – за усопших; священник поіменно згадує тих, за кого вірні подавали прохання про молитву. Покладання часточок біля агнца на дискосі показує, що Христос збирає навколо Себе всю церкву.

Prayer of the Church

(Christ Our Pascha – p.123-4 #349-51)

The Proskomide (Prothesis)

The basic action of the Proskomide is preparation of the bread and wine, as these are the things used by Christ at the Mystical Supper. Bread and wine are God's gifts and also the result of the work of human hands. In the Old Testament, bread signified that which was most indispensable for the maintenance of life, while wine signified festivity, the rejoicing of the soul before God. Bread and wine were the basis of the banquet at which Divine Wisdom offered herself as food to the faithful. In the New Testament at the Mystical Supper, Christ offered bread and wine as the gift of himself for the life of the world. In response, we bring bread and wine as a sign of the gift of our life to Christ.

The Proskomide is performed with loaves specially prepared for the Eucharist, the prosphora (from the Greek, meaning offering). From the first prosphoron the priest cuts out the Lamb and places it on the diskos. The cutting out of the Lamb is accompanied by the words from the prophecy of Isaiah concerning the lamb led to slaughter. Christ is the Paschal Lamb who takes upon himself the sin of the world. On the Lamb cut from the prosphoron there is an impressed seal with the words ic xc nika (Greek for 'Jesus Christ conquers'). These words foreshadow the fullness of the "age to come," about which St. Paul wrote: "When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who put all things in subjection under him, so that God may be all in all." The wine and water poured into the chalice symbolize the blood and water that issued from the side of Christ when it was pierced with a lance. St. John Chrysostom teaches: "...there was a symbol of baptism and the [Eucharistic] mysteries in that blood and water. It is from both of these that the Church is sprung ... It is from his side, therefore, that Christ formed his Church, just as he formed Eve from the side of Adam."

The priest places the Lamb in the centre of the diskos to signify that the incarnate, crucified, and risen Christ is the centre of the universe and of history. To the right of the Lamb he places a triangular particle cut out of a prosphoron in honour of the most holy Mother of God, and to the left, nine particles in honour of the angelic hosts and saints. Below the Lamb he places a row of particles as he commemorates various living persons, and lower still, a row for the deceased being commemorated. In other words, the priest mentions by name those for whom the faithful have requested prayer. The placing of the particles around the Lamb on the diskos shows that Christ gathers to himself the whole Church.

When You Pray:

A Clear Path to a Deeper Relationship with God
 You know that prayer is important but still find it challenging. Perhaps it's hard to find time, or you're unsure what to do when you pray. Or maybe you feel discouraged by your weaknesses and your inability to overcome them. If you have any of these feelings, you are not alone. Many of the saints struggled in prayer. They were like us. But each time they fell, they got up again and learned to rely more on God's grace. What God did in the lives of countless saints, he wants to do in the lives of ordinary people like us. And that's what this study is about: the journey of prayer God wants to take us on.
