

Publican and Pharisee

Liturgical Chant

Troparion Resurrectional (Tone 1)

Though the stone was sealed by the Jews and soldiers guarded your most pure body, You arose, O Savior, on the third day, and gave life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of life: Glory to your resurrection, O Christ! Glory to your kingdom! Glory to your saving plan, O only Lover of Mankind.

The musical notation consists of seven staves of music in a single system. The first six staves contain the lyrics, and the seventh staff is a final cadence. The music is written in a single melodic line on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The rhythm is indicated by note values and rests. The lyrics are: "Though the stone was sealed by the Jews and soldiers guarded your most pure body, You arose, O Savior, on the third day, and gave life to the world. And so the heavenly powers cried out to You, O Giver of life: Glory to your resurrection, O Christ! Glory to your kingdom! Glory to your saving plan, O only Lover of Mankind."
