Літургія Євхаристії (літургія вірних)

Причастя: трапеза тіла і крові

Причастя тіла і крові Господніх увінчує Євхаристійну трапезу. Причастя «перетворює тих, що гідно причащаються, у те, чим воно є, і через благодать і співучасть уподібнює їх до того, хто є Благим за природою, наскільки це можливе й досягне для людей. Тому вони можуть дійсно називатись і бути богами через усиновлення і благодать, адже Бог цілковито їх наповнює і не залишає в них нічого, що було б позбавлене Його присутності.» Завдяки святому Причастю ми досягаємо богоподібності: приймаємо Христа у наше життя, а Христос робить нас учасниками Божої природи.

Як Христос на тайній Вечері дав апостолам Своє тіло і кров, так і священник причащає вірних, які благоговійно, схрестивши руки на грудях, підходять до амвона перед царськими дверима. Слова молитви перед святим Причастям: «Вечері твоєї тайної днесь, Сину Божий, мене причасника прийми» пояснюють суть трапези Господньої і всієї Літургії. Святий Йоан Золотоустий навчає: «тож вірте, що сьогодні готується та сама Вечеря, у якій Він сам брав участь. одна від одної нічим не відрізняються. не можна казати, що цю готувала людина, а ту – Христос; навпаки, і цю, і ту готував і готує Він сам.»

Споживаючи святі дари, ми причащаємося тіла і крові Христа: «Хто споживає тіло Мое і кров Мою п'є, той у Мені перебуває, а Я – в ньому» та уподібнюємося до Христа, набуваючи і божественного «способу мислення»: як Бог дарував Себе нам, так і ми, повністю даруючи себе Богові й іншим людям, маємо життя вічне. Через причащення тіла і крові Христових наше життя повністю є в Бозі: «Живу вже не я, а живе Христос у мені.»

The Liturgy of the Eucharist (Liturgy of the Faithful)

Communion: The Banquet of the Body and Blood

Communion of the Body and Blood of the Lord is the culmination of the Eucharistic Banquet. [Communion] transforms into itself those who worthily partake of it, making them similar to that good which is [their] source by means of grace and participation. They lack nothing of this good that is possible and can be attained by human beings. Therefore they also are and can be called gods by adoption through grace because all of God entirely fills them and leaves no part of them empty of his presence. Through Holy Communion we achieve a divine likeness: we receive Christ into our lives, and Christ makes us partakers of the divine nature.

As Christ offered the apostles his Body and Blood at the Mystical Supper, so the priest communicates the faithful who piously, with hands crossed on their breast, approach the ambo before the Royal Doors. The words of the Prayer before Communion, “Accept me this day, O Son of God, as a partaker of your mystical Supper,” explain the essence of the Lord’s Banquet, and of the entire Liturgy. Saint John Chrysostom teaches: “Believe, therefore, that even now it is that supper, at which he himself sat down. For this is in no respect different from that. For neither does man make this and himself the other; but both this and that is his own work.”

Consuming the Holy Gifts, we communicate in the Body and Blood of Christ: “Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them.” We become similar to Christ and acquire a divine way of thinking: as God granted himself to us, so we, in fully giving ourselves to God and to others, have life eternal. Through communion in the Body and Blood of Christ, our life is fully in God: “It is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me.”

(ВІДРАЗУ ПІСЛЯ УКРАЇНСЬКОЇ СВЯТОЇ ЛІТУРГІЇ)

Annual FAITH update:

Hope (L) and Grace (R) standing with Faith, Jesi, and me below.

I provide an update on our daughter Faith at Christmas because so many people ask about her. She is the reason why I left my 25 year media career to work for Right to Life of Michigan. Faith is our 5th child and was born with Trisomy 18 which is a chromosome anomaly usually labeled as “incompatible with life” or “fatal fetal anomaly.” Most people know Down Syndrome which is Trisomy 21, or an extra chromosome on the 21st pair. Faith has an extra chromosome on the 18th pair.

Our family has lots of firsthand experience with the devaluing of human life. We were pushed to kill our daughter in the womb because of her disability which is the ultimate in discrimination and bigotry. We thought saying no to abortion was the end of the discussion, but this was the beginning of our fight. Then we learned that disabled children like Faith have medical care withheld like surgeries, medicines, etc. Frequently, they are pushed into “comfort care” where they are starved and overdosed to death.

This year Faith did not have to spend much time overnight in the hospital except for a BSSO jaw surgery in April which was very successful. It was done to help open her airway, and her latest sleep study showed tremendous improvement. She also had multiple ERCP procedures outpatient to work on fixing a problem with her pancreatic duct. This also has been successful so far. During her last procedure, her doctor removed the stents, and we are praying for the work to permanently keep her duct open. We have been focused on fixing her airway and gut issues because both of these have proved to be the biggest triggers of seizures. Faith continues on her keto diet which has been amazing at controlling her seizures.

Overall, Faith is doing much better and still walks in her gait trainer. As you can see in the photo, Faith was able to go with us to the Michigan March For Life on November 8. Also, I have to share how proud we are of our oldest daughter Grace who just married a great young man in May. When she found out that she was pregnant with our first grandchild, she jumped at the chance to be a plaintiff in our lawsuit. It is not easy to put yourself out there publicly like this and yet she willingly did it to represent pregnant women in Michigan and disabled children like Faith.

Trisomy 18 has been prominently discussed by the media in the last 2 weeks because of the Texas Trisomy 18 court case with a mother asking for an exception to abort her Trisomy 18 child. She was told her child is incompatible with life. Faith has been featured in several national articles and podcasts including a Live Action article with her sister Grace as we have been pushing back on the lie that Trisomy 18 children cannot survive. God is good!

We are also celebrating Faith’s 15th birthday on December 23rd. HAPPY BIRTHDAY FAITH!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! It's been a very busy year. On November 8th – the same day as our Michigan March For Life (pictured below), the American Freedom Law Center in Ann Arbor formally filed a legal challenge in Federal Court to the constitutionality of Proposal 3. Right to Life of Michigan is one of 16 plaintiffs. My oldest daughter Grace Fisher is the plaintiff representing pregnant women. The legal complaint was filed with co-counsel Great Lakes Justice Center in the U.S. District Court for the western district of Michigan against Gretchen Whitmer, Dana Nessel, and Jocelyn Benson.

We seek a declaration that Article 1, section 28 of the Michigan Constitution, which is the provision of the state constitution created by Proposal 3, violates the UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION. We seek a permanent injunction to prevent the implementation and enforcement of section 28. (email me for a link if you want to read the lawsuit)

We have developed a new educational campaign with 6 brand new prolife ads. We plan to utilize a multi-platform approach across the entire state in 2024 incorporating traditional television, streaming video, YouTube, social media, and content marketing. Please watch the first 3 ads below with the red QR code using your mobile phone camera. These ads are not for you! They are designed to lovingly invite women to choose life! The last 3 ads (green QR code) extend the long, loving arms of the prolife community to the woman experiencing a crisis pregnancy. With some final changes to the ads to be made, women will be able to talk to a live person 24 hours a day, 7 days a week through a phone call or text.

THANK YOU so much for your faithfulness and donations to Right to Life of Michigan this year to help us with this important work. Any year end donations, either non-tax deductible to our RLM Fund or tax deductible to our Education Fund, may be mailed to Right to Life of Michigan, PO Box 901, Grand Rapids, MI 49509-0901 or given online at DonationsForLife.org. If you have questions, please reach out by phone 248-765-8717 or email bsmith@rtl.org. (Annual FAITH update on the back.)

God bless,

Brad
