VOL. 62 / NO. 17 • TONE 1 • THOMAS SUNDAY • APRIL 27, 2025

Thomas missed the first encounter with Christ, was gently rebuked by Him on the second, and invited to touch the sacred wounds—something he had insisted upon. God is kinder to us than we can expect or even deserve; He often stoops down to our blinded cynicism and broken hearts. Our own faith is made stronger by Jesus' mercy toward unhappy Thomas. This mercy set him free from skepticism in order to prevent us from claiming similar skepticism. When Jesus said to Thomas, "Blessed are those who have not seen and believed," He was speaking about us.

Тома був перший, хто сумнівався до самого кінця, ми сумніваємося постійно в слід за ним. І тоді теж до нас відносяться слова Спасителя: «Щасливі ті, які, не бачивши, увірували!». Ми щасливі, не зважаючи на наші сумніви, бо сумніви є у кожній людини, крім фанатиків, які ні в чому не сумніваються. Проте у сумнівах теж проявляється Божа дія, Божа благодать, яка спроможна збільшити нашу віру набагато більше, та зробити її набагато сильнішою, аніж у тих, у кого сумнівів майже немає. Нехай святий Апостол Тома випрошує нам цю благодать на нашій дорозі віри у Христа Воскреслого, Господа і Бога нашого.
